VINI BIANCHI + ROSATI

TRENTINO - ALTO ADIGE

Trentino - Alto Adige, situated in northern Italy on the border with Austria, is a premier alpine region producing high-quality, crisp and citrus-driven white wines in a cool climate. Located in the Alps and Dolomites, vineyards benefit from warm days and cool nights, leading to bright, balanced and fresh wines with naturally high acidity. Pinot Bianco is a signature grape in the Alto Adige. Expect mineral tones and clean cut fruits along with slate and lime zest with razor sharp acidity and rich textured fruit that land on a delicately salty finish.

2022	319	Cantina Terlano Pinot Bianco	50

FRIULI - VENEZIA GIULIA

Friuli-Venezia Giulia is in north-eastern Italy surrounded by Austria, Slovenia, the Adriatic Sea and Veneto. The region produces 80% of its wine from white grapes, making it one of white wine world's most exciting superstars. The region is renowned for crisp, aromatic and mineral-driven whites that display high acidity. Varietals include Friulano, Ribolla Gialla, Malvasia, Pinot Grigio and Sauvignon Blanc, which grow exceptionally well in the cool, mountainous climate.

2024	311	Livon Collio Sauvignon Blanc	48
------	-----	------------------------------	----

VENETO

Veneto is located in the northeast corner of Italy, bound on the west by Lake Garda, on the north by the Dolomite Mountains and on the east by the Adriatic Sea. Veneto produces diverse whites with Pinot Grigio offering clean, delicate fruit and easy drinkability - while Soave, made from the native Garganega grape, delivers a richer, almond-tinged complexity with a signature mineral finish.

2024	308	Zenato delle Venezie Pinot Grigio	46
2023	312	Inama 'Foscarino' Soave Classico	55
2025	313	Le Morette Charetto Bardolino Classico Rose	46

PIEMONTE

Piemonte is situated on the north-western border with France with a geography shaped by the Alps in the north and the Mediterranean to the south. Piemonte is known for producing exceptional, high quality crisp and aromatic white wines, notably Gavi from the Cortese grape and Arneis from the Roero hills. Influenced by cold winter and warm, dry summers, the region produces wines with bright acidity, floral aromatics and a crisp, refreshing style.

2024	310	Bruno Giacosa Roero Arneis	65
2024	306	La Scolca Gavi	48
2024	322	Coppa Moncalvina Moscato d'Asti	50

TOSCANA

Described as the beating heart of Italy, Toscana encapsulates all that has come to make the country so historically and culturally significant. The region is renowned for its picturesque, rolling hills, Mediterranean climate and ancient winemaking heritage. Toscana produces distinct, high quality white wines, leading with Vernaccia di San Gimignano, one of Italy's oldest white varietals, with crisp acidity, subtle almond notes and a stoney mineral finish.

2024	315	La Lastra Vernaccia di San Gimignano	50
2024	320	Marchesi Frescobaldi Castello di Pomino Bianco	52

LE MARCHE

Le Marche, located in central Italy and perched along the Adriatic coast, is a premier, underrated and food friendly white wine region defined by hilly terrain, limestone-clay soils and a maritime climate. The indigenous Verdicchio grape is best known for bright, herbaceous, saline wines with a lively acidity and a lingering bitter finish - making it a natural pairing for the region's abundant fresh seafood.

2022	316	Lucchetti Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico	50

UMBRIA

Umbria, the 'green heart' of Italy, is a central, landlocked region benefitting from a continental climate with warm summers and cool nights, lending distinctive minerality to the wines with its volcanic soil. The iconic Orvieto DOC, a blend traditionally led by Trebbiano and Grechetto, offers a delicate floral character with soft fruit and a clean, refreshing finish.

2024	318	Antinori Castello della Sala San Giovanni della Sala Orvieto Classico Superiore	60

PUGLIA

Puglia is in Italy's southeastern 'heel' featuring a warm Mediterranean wine region known for producing high value aromatic white wines. The hot, dry climate is tempered by sea breezes from the Adriatic and Ionian seas, which help retain acidity in the grapes. Indigenous grapes include Verdeca, Fiano, Bianco and Chardonnay, delivering citrus and stone fruit flavors balanced by pleasant saline.

2024	303	Tormaresca Chardonnay	48

CAMPANIA

Campania, in southern Italy, is a historic white wine region with high-altitude volcanic terrains and native grapes that produce crisp, aromatic and mineral driven wines. Falanghina charms with its bright citrus and floral aromatics, while Greco di Tufo, grown in the mineral-rich soils around Avellino, delivers a fuller, more structured style with notes of peach, apricot and a striking volcanic minerality.

2023	307	Terredora Di Paolo Falanghina	48
2022	323	Feudi di San Gregorio Greco di Tufo DOCG	60
2024	314	Terredora Di Paolo Fiano di Avellino	58

SARDEGNA

Sardegna, Italy's second-largest island, produces white wines of real personality shaped by a hot Mediterranean climate, rocky terrain and coastal salinity. Vermentino di Sardegna is the island's signature white, offering zesty citrus, fresh herbs and a distinctly saline, maritime quality, making it one of Italy's most refreshing warm-weather whites.

2023	305	PALA I Fiori Vermentino di Sardegna	48
NV	309	Cardedu 'BUCCE' Bianco	48

SICILIA

Sicilia, Italy's largest island, produces diverse, high-quality white wines, with bright acidity, citrus notes, and volcanic salinity due to its Mediterranean climate and dramatic terrain. The easy-drinking, aromatic Grillo, with its citrus notes, is from the sun-drenched west. Etna Bianco, grown on the steep slopes of Mount Etna, is from the Carricante grape and presents a striking and complex structure with mineral, smoky notes and a cool elegance.

2024	301	Donnafugata Grillo SurSur	52
2023	321	Nicosia 'Lenza Di Munti' Etna Bianco DOC	47

CALIFORNIA

California produces world-renowned white wines dominated by the Chardonnay grape, ranging from rich and buttery to refreshingly crisp, largely driven by a Mediterranean climate with cooling coast influences. Napa Valley is particularly recognized for full-bodied, often oaked, and rich wines.

2023	302	Stag's Leap Chardonnay, Napa Valley	55

VINI ROSSI

TRENTINO - ALTO ADIGE

Trentino Alto Adige, located in northern Italy and bordering Austria, is a mountainous, high-altitude wine region known for Alpine influenced red wines and elegant, high-acid reds in the Dolomites' valleys. The climate blends Alpine cold with warm Mediterranean currents, with Pinot Noir thriving here - yielding refined, light-bodied wines with bright red fruit and crisp Alpine freshness.

2022	415	Bottega Vinaia Pinot Noir	48

PUGLIA

Puglia, located in Italy's southeastern heel, is a sun-drenched, hot and dry wine region renowned for producing bold, high quality red wines of excellent value. Dominated by the native Primitivo and Negroamaro grapes, the wines are full bodied, rich and warming, fruit forward and feature jammy, dark fruit notes.

2021	423	Papale Primitivo di Manduria	53
------	-----	------------------------------	----

CAMPANIA

Campania, a historic southern Italian region near Naples, produces powerful, age-worthy red wines primarily from the Aglianico grape, one of Italy's oldest varietals. Influenced by Mount Vesuvius and a Mediterranean climate, Taurasi DOCG, often referred to as the 'Barolo of the South,' is deeply structured with dark fruit, iron-tinged minerality and firm tannins.

2019	425	Mastroberardino 'Radici' Taurasi DOCG	85
2021	428	San Salvatore Ceraso Paestum Aglianico	50

SICILIA

The island of Sicilia under the intense Mediterranean heat and sun is Italy's largest wine region, producing diverse reds that range from the bold, velvety dark fruit and warm spice of Nero d'Avola to the elegant, lighter in body Etna Rosso (Nerello Mascalese) with its bright acidity mineral smokiness from the dramatic slopes of Mount Etna.

2022	418	Morgante Nero d'Avola	48
2023	421	Graci Etna Rosso	65
2025	436	Occhipinti SP68 Rosso	60

CALIFORNIA

California is the premier US wine-producing state, known for a Mediterranean climate featuring warm, sunny days and cool, foggy nights that produce full-bodied wines dominated by world class Cabernet Sauvignon. Expect opulent dark fruit, lush tannins and polished richness that reflects Napa's signature balance of power and elegance.

2022	402	Faust Cabernet Sauvignon	75
2020	501	Silver Oak Cabernet Sauvignon	145
2023	502	Turnbull Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon	98

OREGON

Oregon is a world-renowned, cool-climate wine region often compared to Burgundy, France and famous for producing premium Pinot Noir. Primarily centered in the Willamette Valley in the northwest, the state features volcanic and marine sedimentary soils, a sustainable, small-batch winemaking culture and a diverse range of varietals. Willamette Pinots are graceful and complex with bright red fruit, earthy depth and a silky finesse.
